Spring 2009

Welcome to our spring newsletter - hold on tight because we're about to launch into our busiest period for a long time. We've got events in May, July, August and December so please bear with us and whatever you do - don't stop buying the tickets!

Selling tickets, for us, is never about making money (by the time we've paid our 'stars', we're lucky if we break even!) but it is important that we attract a strong audience. Our performers love to act, dance and sing, but it's your presence, in a packed audience, that really gives them a kick and makes them feel truly valued. You know how those showbiz types are, they need applause and plenty of it!

COMING SOON - A Bucketful of Broadway

Tickets are now on sale for our next show, A Bucketful of Broadway.

All of Broadway in a bucket? Well, yes, if you think of Saltburn Theatre as the bucket, and "All of Broadway" as being the best songs from the history of the musicals.

So the theme is "musical theatre, and we've included some real favourites in this show: songs and music from The Lion King, Mary Poppins, Joseph and Oliver.

Our vocal coach, Rose, has been involved in the production of a number of the songs and you'll be blown away by our ambitious and stunning versions of Can You Feel the Love, Down By The Riverside and Who Will Buy.

Demand for this show will be great so make sure to book your tickets early.

Earthbeat Celebration Evening

It's almost time to start polishing your platforms because this year's celebration evening will be a glamtastic Seventies Night. We've hired a brilliant seventies band who have promised to turn the Marton Hotel into a 'Disco Inferno'. For those too young (or too old) to remember the seventies they'll also be playing a selection of floor fillers from the sixties and the eighties. Tickets are £5 and everyone is welcome. Tickets will go on sale in June and, as usual, are free for Earthbeat performers.

July 17th Earthbeat Celebration Evening, Marton Hotel, 7pm

Do you miss the days when you could put on a sequined headband, some platform shoes and trousers wider than they were long and nobody would point and laugh?

If so, why not shake your body down to Saltburn Theatre this Summer, when our Monday group will be taking you to a Boogie Wonderland of memorable 70's hits, including Sugar Baby Love, Tiger Feet, Daddy Cool and Cuba.

And it won't just be the disco classics. Those of you who like a smooch will be delighted by our versions of Starry Starry Night and The First Time Ever.

So prepare for some Night Fever – the 70's are back!

August 17th, 18th Step into the Seventies
